SEEFELD CHRISTMAS MARKET IN THE PEDESTRIAN ZONE

The traditional Christmas Market in the Seefeld pedestrian zone promises an atmospheric festive season. Open daily from 14:00 to 21:00, from 21.11.2025 – 06.01.2026. Culinary delicacies, as well as regional arts and crafts and lovely gift ideas, await visitors in the charming Tyrolean log cabin-style huts. The magic of this most contemplative time of the year comes to the fore when the Seefeld brass band plays in the evening and regional choirs sing traditional Christmas carols.

- ★ Klingender Advent (musical extravaganza)
- ★ Seefeld Christmas Market
- ★ Magic of Lights
- ★ 100,000 Path of Lights

SEEFELD MAGIC LIGHTS

From 01.11.2025, a series of sparkling light installations will illuminate the Kurpark, the pedestrian zone, the parish hill and the Seekirchl, putting a smile on everyone's face all winter long.

LEUTASCH CHRISTMAS MARKET

The Leutasch Christmas Market takes place by the music pavilion in Weidach. From 7th to 21st Dec., the market is open from 15:00 – 21:00 on 3 Advent Sundays and 2 Saturdays. Regional exhibitors show off their products and specialities in charming Advent huts, with musical entertainment and tasty treats adding to the festive atmosphere.

“KLINGENDER ADVENT” ON TYROL'S HIGH PLATEAU (MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA)

Festive music and the Seefeld Christmas Market help make the “Klingender Advent” musical extravaganza a real highlight in the lead-up to Christmas. From 09. to 11.12.2025. On Wednesday 10th, Advent meets Alpine with melodies from the music group “Hand aufs Herz”, the “Ursprung Buam” and regional choirs from the plateau. Thursday 11th is the grand finale with the wonderfully festive concert from Semino Rossi as part of his “Feliz Navidad” tour.

“KRAMPUS” PROCESSIONS IN THE REGION SEEFELD

The traditional “Krampus” (devils) processions in Seefeld, Leutasch, Reith and Scharnitz take place at the end of November / beginning of December. On 6th and 7th Dec., the Krampus parade and after-show party in Seefeld are particularly scary! With the shaggy outer garments, loud bells and horrible wooden masks, the Krampus figures are an old Tyrolean tradition. Numerous Krampus groups from all over Austria will be there to provide some spectacular and hair-raising moments.

SCHARNITZ, MÖSERN UND REITH

The Scharnitz Art & Cultural Association will open the Scharnitz Advent Market at 13.00 on 29th and 30th November. In Reith, Advent traditionally starts with the sale of the Advent wreaths by the Reith Farmers. Proceeds are donated to charity. There will also be festive mulled wine stands, and a nativity scene. Mösern will also have a small but charming Advent programme.

LEUTASCH CHAPEL ADVENT

Memories of bygone winters come alive! Join Monika and Hans Neuner on their guided walks around the chapels and finish off the experience with some refreshments in a Leutasch tavern. Learn about the chapels as you walk along with lighted flares and accompanied by singing or brass music. The Chapel Advent is at 17.00 on Fridays and Saturdays during the Advent season. Reservations required for the respective taverns.
